STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of the defendant's supervised release, the defendant must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for the defendant's behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in the defendant's conduct and condition.

1. The defendant must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where they are authorized to reside within 72 hours of their release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs the defendant to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, the defendant will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when the defendant must report to the probation officer, and the defendant must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. The defendant must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where the defendant is authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. The defendant must answer truthfully the questions asked by their probation officer.
5. The defendant must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If the defendant plans to change where they live or anything about their living arrangements (such as the people living with the defendant), the defendant must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, the defendant must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. The defendant must allow the probation officer to visit them at any time at their home or elsewhere, and the defendant must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of their supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. The defendant must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses the defendant from doing so. If the defendant does not have full-time employment the defendant must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses the defendant from doing so. If the defendant plans to change where the defendant works or anything about their work (such as their position or their job responsibilities), the defendant must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, the defendant must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. The defendant must not communicate or interact with someone they know is engaged in criminal activity. If the defendant knows someone has been convicted of a felony, they must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If the defendant is arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, the defendant must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. The defendant must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. The defendant must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines the defendant poses a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require the defendant to notify the person about the risk and the defendant must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that the defendant notified the person about the risk.
13. The defendant must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. Submit your person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, electronic communications or data storage devices or media, and effects to search at any time, with or without a warrant, by any law enforcement or probation officer with reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of probation/supervised release or unlawful conduct, and otherwise in the lawful discharge of the officer's duties. 18 U.S.C. §§ 3563 (b)(23); 3583 (d)(3).
2. Register and keep the registration current, in each jurisdiction where the offender resides, where the offender is an employee, and where the offender is a student. For initial registration purposes only, a sex offender shall also register in the jurisdiction in which convicted if such jurisdiction is different from the jurisdiction of residence. 42 U.S.C. § 16913.
3. Consent to third party disclosure to any employer, potential employer, concerning any restrictions that are imposed by the court.
4. Not use or possess devices which can communicate data via modem or dedicated connection and may not have access to the Internet without prior approval from the court or the probation officer. The offender shall consent to the installation of systems that will enable the probation officer to monitor computer use on any computer owned or controlled by the offender. The offender shall pay for the cost of installation of the computer software.
5. Not associate with or have any contact with any sex offenders unless in an approved treatment and/or counseling setting.
6. Participate in a program of drug or alcohol abuse treatment, including urinalysis or sweat patch testing and counseling, as directed by the probation officer. Allow for reciprocal release of information between the probation officer and the treatment provider. May be required to contribute to the costs of services rendered in an amount to be determined by the probation officer, based on ability to pay.
7. Not have any contact, direct or indirect, either telephonically, visually, verbally or through written material, or through any third-party communication, with the victim or victim's family, without approval of the probation officer.
8. Not have unsupervised contact with any child under the age of 18, unless in the presence of a supervising adult (who is aware of the defendant's deviant sexual behavior and conviction), and with the prior approval of the probation officer.
9. Not accept or commence employment/volunteer program without prior approval of the probation officer, and employment should be subject to continuous review and assessment by the probation officer.

10. Complete a sex offender evaluation, which may include periodic psychological, physiological testing, and completion of a visual reaction time (VRT) assessment, at the direction of the court or probation officer. If deemed necessary by the treatment provider, the offender shall participate and successfully complete an approved state certified sex offender treatment program, including compliance with treatment requirements of the program. The Court authorizes the release of the presentence report, and available psychological evaluations to the treatment provider, as approved by the probation officer. The offender will allow reciprocal release of information between the probation officer and the treatment provider. The offender may also be required to contribute to the costs of services rendered in an amount to be determined by the probation officer, based on ability to pay. Polygraph examinations may be used following completion of the formal treatment program as directed by the probation officer in order to monitor adherence to the goals and objectives of treatment and as a part of the containment model.
11. Reside in a residence approved in advance by the probation officer, and any changes in residence shall be pre-approved by the probation officer.
12. Not possess any materials such as videos, magazines, photographs, computer images or other matter that depicts "sexually explicit conduct" involving children, as defined by 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2); and not patronize any place where such materials or entertainment are available."
13. Prohibited from associating with those you know or should know (based on your background and history with the West Coast Crips), to be a member or associate of the gang/organization. A void contact with members or associates of the West Coast Crips at locations known to be frequented by the gang, and refrain from possessing or using items associated with the West Coast Crips.
